BITTER ATTACKS ON PRESIDENT
Coolidge, to British newspapers, and a statement by Lord Birkenhead, that England doesn't want any Coolidge advice, should enlighten the President.

He has not been to Europe recently, official duties preventing. He has been hearing the soft words of ambassadors looking for something, and may not know how well hated this country is, in Europe.

Distinguished Britishers, embarking the President, render a service to the country, intensifying President Coolidge's determination to have the United States properly prepared.

SUBMARINES, AIRPLANES, FAST CRUISERS AND MONEY are four things that Great Britain understands perfectly, and respects.

Professors of Northwestern University tell business men selecting employees to pick out extroverts and avoid introverts.

The introvert is a dreamer, withdrawing within himself. The extrovert is a backslapper and go-getter.

Theodore Roosevelt, Mussolini, William Howard Taft and Governor Smith are of the extrovert type.

There is something of the introvert and extrovert in every man. Charles Fourier told about it more than a hundred years ago, using the word: "internal institutional, and external rational," which are better.

In connection with cool conditions in the stock market, investors waiting more than an hour for the ticker to catch up, W. Durant sends the suggestion: "Advocate a double ticker service, one recording stocks from 'A' to 'M' and the other from 'N' to 'Z'. If at any time one is overloaded, the exchange could correct the inequality by immediate notice without confusion or inconvenience." That seems a good suggestion, better than the one made here, to put the active stocks on the ticker, and the others on another.

The National Association of Public Service Commissioners decries that public utility companies are using the "LURE TO GO ALIEN" in public ownership leads to socialism, that's VERY serious.

But what about the fact that public ownership would put commoners out of a job? Does that help the socialism scare?

And what about our post office, the biggest public ownership institution in the world, and one of the most successful? Has that led us to socialism? And would private ownership carry a letter from Key West to Alaska for two cents?

What is socialism, by the way? It is nothing but the effort, often a very foolish effort, to improve special conditions. When the opportunity offers, they should be improved.

Solemn and strange were the first ceremonies that concluded the long "enthronement" of the new Japanese Mikado, Hirohito.

The ruler of 60,000,000 Japanese spent the night alone in the forest in the "Village of the Gods," or Great Thanksgiving.

A thousand servants, nobles and guards waited outside the forest while he offered sacred rice to the "Myriad Deities" of the "Shinto" religion.

There is, and should be, a very excitement about the many downed on the steamer Vestris. While that attracts attention, its private in the United States Army are kept, falling 4000 feet in an army airplane, from which one wins "snapped off."

Anybody responsible for that, morally or otherwise? Can't the richest country afford to send soldiers up in airplanes from which the wings will not "SNAP OFF"? There are such plans.

New Zealand decides that it doesn't like prohibition, and on the other side of the earth they have a way of changing things when they want to.

By a majority of 166,000, New Zealand decides to drop prohibition and go back to licensing. They found it easy enough to make laws, but so easy to change human nature, and not at all easy to estimate the kind of alcohol distributed under prohibition.

Europe is trying to do things on a big scale. Britain is organizing "a big steel merger," putting together a number of important British steel companies, amounting in all to $100,000,000.

That's less than a tenth of what we call a big company. United States Steel not long ago gave away double that amount in one stock distribution and pays 5 per cent on the dividend.

Sales Plan Approved by Council

Portland, Me., Nov. 16.—The $800,000 New England sales plan, under which one-third of the appropriation will be expended each year in sponsoring and "booming" the coming of the nation, was approved today at the closing session of the fourth New England Council conference.

Adoption of the extensive plan followed individual conferences of state groups.

The adoption is considered the outstanding step of the council since its formation four years ago. It was said following the vote that work of placing New England and her advantages before the world will begin immediately.

Another feature of today's meeting was the presentation and adoption of a plan before the regional resources committee, headed by Joshua A. Brooks of Maine.

The plan, as outlined, calls for an indoor and outdoor exposition, probably at Springfield, in May or June.

Naming Edna Smith, formerly of Mountfort st., Back Bay, Mrs. Helen L. Eldridge of Newburyport, Middlesex' Probate Court today brought suit for divorce against Joseph I. Eldridge, Boston investment broker and banker, on grounds of unfaithfulness and cruelty and abuse.

Judge Arthur R. Jones allowed her a $100,000 attachment on deposits of her husband on the State Street Trust Co. and the First National Bank and the Newton Trust Co., and at the woman's request summonses were issued for members of the firm of Hornblower & Weeks, J. W. Bowen Co. and Proctor, Cook & Co., as trustees for Eldridge.

4 VICTIMS TELL OF BLAST

Four silent witnesses and ten others told their stories today as an inquest into the Lynn explosion, which took 19 lives last Thursday, began today at Lynn fire headquarters, at a hearing conducted by State Fire Marshal George C. Neal.

Ten witnesses appeared in person and gave testimony. Twenty-two others were on hand but will not be heard until tomorrow.

The four silent figures—whose names are probably most important of all—submitted depositions from hospital beds where they lie. Still Please Turn to Page 2, Column 2.

RADIO OPERATOR SENT HINT OF AID NEEDED BUT 'FORGOT' ALL ABOUT IT

New York, Nov. 16 (AP)—Charles H. Tuttle, United States district attorney, announced today that he had received reports from confidential sources that led him to say that any one attempting to prevent the full testimony of witnesses as to the sinking of the steamer Vestris would be most severely dealt with.

New York, Nov. 16.—In the tense atmosphere of a crowded courtroom in the Federal Building, U. S. Dist. Atty. Tuttle's inquiry into the Vestris sea disaster, which cost 111 lives, was resumed this afternoon before Commissioner Francis R. O'Neill.

Charles Verchere, relief radio operator on the Vestris and a resident of London, was the first witness called today, seventh so far in the inquiry.

He admitted sending out a message Sunday night that the ship might need aid. This admission followed a reminder by Tuttle that witness before the session opened had told him of the message.

While Tuttle was conducting the probe in Federal Court, the ship was still in the water.

CALL POLICE AS BLOCK OF 50 VOTES IS MISSED

A block of 50 Boston votes were declared missing today by representatives of the Democratic state committee and as a result the block was placed on guard at the city hall where the ballots are stored at City Hall.

The votes in question were cast in precinct One of ward four, and were known as block four. Republican tallymen at the recent noon poll on at Faneuil Hall say their sheets show this block was "re-counted" and sent back to City Hall.

The Democratic state committee asked and obtained permission to place the detectives on guard. The Counting on Page 28.

HARVARD ALL SET TO TACKLE HOLY CROSS

Harvard makes its last grid appearance of the season in the Stadium tomorrow afternoon when it faces Holy Cross.

Neither the Worcester players or players will arrive in the Hub until tomorrow, so the "night before" will be must quicker than usual.

There is no great rush for tickets for this contest, but when the Crusader contingent arrive in town the sale of matchbooks will pick up, and it is expected that more than 40,000 will be present in the Stadium when hostilities start.

Harvard voters are availing themselves of the season's climax at New Haven next weekend when the Crimson and Blue collide, and can't afford to do any celebrating, but the visitors will make whoopee plenty while here, for, next to Boston College, the Crimson is the people's greatest rival.

The boys who are wont to wage are offering 2 to 1 on the Crimson. This quotation is not surprising, for Harvard is by far the stronger of the two teams and ought to win but Holy Cross is a great, passing team. Please Turn to Page 25, Column 2.

received a message from her husband, Mrs. de Almeida returned with him that he would hold no more special.
Mrs. Wood further testified that whenever Mrs. de Almeida had company come to her house to see her, her husband never cared to meet them and "always" stayed in the bedroom.
DOCTOR ON STAND
Describing Mrs. de Almeida's condition while she was sick, his wife, Dr. H. H. Wood, a prominent physician and nerve specialist, testified that he had treated the woman during the months of July, August and September of this year.
"She was nervous, worried, looked as though she was going to be nervous," he testified, explaining that he went into a thorough study of the history of her case.
Dr. Wood attributed the cause of her condition to the reaction of the situation under which she lived, and due to the treatment she received at the hands of her husband.
"It was an unfortunate situation for her, from which she saw no solution because it rested on her mind and was down her nervous system," he said.
The doctor had consulted his testimony when reverse was called, and de Almeida was to be called on his testimony this afternoon.
The Almeida took the witness stand and denied having received the wife to the third floor of his warehouse house. He said his wife agreed to take an apartment on the third floor because he had made a deathbed promise to his father never to leave his mother but he said his wife and the "man" of the entire house.
The husband said he was vice consul for Spain in 1905, when he was married and has been in the country 41 years in all.

'Learned About Living From Life'—Schawb

Edgewater Hotel, Miss. Nov. 16 (AP)—The lonely philosophy of Charles M. Schawb, founder of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, has gripped the delegates attending the convention of the American Institute of Steel Construction, most of whom he has grown from comparative obscurity.

Standing before the steel men today he said:
"I have learned a lot about steel, but, unfortunately, I have learned a lot about life. Ah, that is the thing. Be happy, boys. Enter into your work naturally. If you succeed, lunch, but better still, if you fail, lunch. Forget your failures and hold for the future."
"I am happy," he said, "I am happy now that I am 45 years old, for, of course, we want money enough to buy our little nest we go along, but I am only a student of success."
"I was once asked if a big business man ever retained his objective, he replied that if a man ever reached his objective he was not a big business man. It is ever onward with the successful business man until he has a goal."
"When my time comes to die, I do not want to be surrounded by grateful people. I want to be grateful."

LET THE WOMEN RULE! IT TICKLES HOLLYWOOD

L. N. S. Special Correspondent.
Hollywood, Cal., Nov. 16.—If, as Baron Sigurd Hoelberts von Schwartzthal says, the world is being dominated by women, Hollywood apparently is willing to submit to feminine tyranny.
Baron Schwartzthal, president of the "League of Men," charged at a luncheon that men in America were too cowardly and bachelors too happy to join his organization and oppose the film colony where reign the movie queens.
"I think of but one branch of human endeavor in which women excel—that in beautification of the feminine dress and underwear," said the gallant Baron. "I will have to say that."

NEW CODES AND MEXICAN LABOR

Mexico City, Nov. 16 (AP)—A minimum wage and annual vacation win may be secured by workers in Mexico under a labor code which Emilio Portes Gil, Mexico's incoming president, intends to submit to congress.

Other provisions of the code include:

- Compulsory arbitration of labor disputes.
- Setting up of an elaborate system for a utilization court.
- Forbidding labor by children under 14.
- Restriction of labor by minors and women.
- A short-hour day and a six-day week.
- Compensation of labor in case of national need.
- Abolition of saloons and gambling houses in labor centers.
- Junior Portes Gil, who now is secretary of the interior, said that he proposed before the congress of workers and employers. He said they had been prepared under his supervision and, of course, his own ideas are not final and also those of the labor president-elect, Alvaro Obregon.

TWO VACANCIES ON REPUBLICAN TICKET

The Democrats, who have had difficulty in completing their ticket in past years, are expected to have a complete list of candidates when the election comes today.

eral Court, a second Federal inquiry suddenly got underway before the steamship inspection board in the customs house today.

Capt. Frederick Sorenson, himself a follower of the sea, and who was a passenger on the Vestrís, was a witness before the steamship inspection board and changed his earlier story.

When he landed in New York Wednesday Sorenson was among the most caustic of the critics who assailed the behavior of the Vestrís' crew. He had said then: "The actions of the captain and crew were little less than criminal."

But now, after a second Federal inquiry, Sorenson has changed his story. He now says that the Vestrís' crew were not at fault.

HARVARD PICKED TO WIN

Crimson Eleven Expects Hard Battle From Purple Warriors

By TED LYNCH

A last-minute revival of Holy Cross confidence, and a lot of Purple money, has changed the early dope that Harvard would win in a romp. From all accounts, Harvard is going to have a hard tussle on its hands tomorrow at the Stadium.

It is not that the Crimson have been suddenly inspired to a new level of play, but that the Purple have been suddenly inspired to a new level of play. The Purple have been suddenly inspired to a new level of play, and the Crimson have been suddenly inspired to a new level of play.

HARVARD LEADER HURT

Harvard's leading scorer, a player named X, has been hurt. This is a significant blow to the team's offensive capabilities. The injury occurred during a practice session and is expected to keep him out of the game.

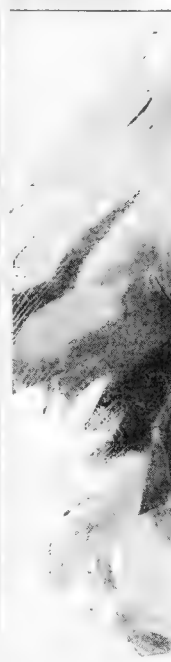

Both of these players have been

Both of these players have been recovering around on that variety line-up all week, and from all indications, however, will start them on the Stadium award tomorrow afternoon. The Purple have been suddenly inspired to a new level of play, and the Crimson have been suddenly inspired to a new level of play.

UNBEATEN TEAMS HAVE ROUGH ROAD GREAT GARDEN BOUL

Harvard and H. C. Long Odds Football Crusaders Pass By NICK FLATTERY

HARVARD MUST WATCH CRUSADER PASSES

HARVARD is a heavy favorite to beat Holy Cross at the Stadium tomorrow, but the speculatively inclined would do well to hesitate before risking the new electric freezer on this game. The Worcester team has played a great deal in this campaign, but the athletes who have played against the Crusaders all declare that luck was with them. The boys say that Holy Cross is good, but unfortunate.

It might be well to remember that the Brown team that smothered Dartmouth, defeated the Purple by a long run in the last few minutes of a tight game. It would do no harm to recall that Fordham, the same outfit that gave Boston College such a sturdy fight, piled up a big lead on the Worcester array, and then was almost snowed under in a wild last period Crusader rush.

This Holy Cross team has been riddled by injuries, but practically all the regulars will be back in three tomorrow. And Harvard will be thinking of the Penn disaster. The Crimson should win out by force of man-power, but from where we see things, the Howeren heroes have no gentle workout ahead.

Harvard has been weak against the forward pass, and the Holy Cross youths know how to fling the ball around. They will start early and often. And they may get a quick break that way. Two or three well-executed tosses can mean a couple of first period touchdowns.

Harvard has evidenced no ability in this campaign to come from behind. Both the Army and Penn took their Stadium games by embracing opportunity in the first few minutes and cashing in. Holy Cross will be out to get the jump. Which should make this particular game a whiz, right from the start.

THERE MUST BE TOUGH EGGS ON THOSE UNBEATEN FOOT-BALL TEAMS

It is proper and fitting that the new garden should open with a crash-tower show.

LIFE IS EXCITING FOR THE UNBEATEN

CARNEGIE TECH and Boston College are two of the most skilled of football teams in the country, because they are the only big eastern representatives that have not been licked yet. The Eagles, with a poor schedule, hoisted themselves into the calcium by sheer class. There will be a cheer for a good season game, if the pair of them can march through the remainder of the campaign. And such a battle would fill the stadium with excitement.

The pair have now reached the mercurial and their progress. The boys will begin to fret about luck, and fretting may be fatal. Tomorrow the Carnegie team has one of the toughest assignments on any schedule—beating Notre Dame. The Irish started poorly, but have returned to the heights, as they proved when they routed the Army last week.

The Eagles must pinch off a victory tomorrow. They should do that little thing, but Luke Urban knows it. Football, and has a lucky outfit that knows the trick.

The unbeaten football team is like the club that gets out in front in any league. Everybody tries particularly hard to take a sock.

IT IS NOT TRUE THAT THE NATIONAL LEAGUE EMPHATICALLY TENDER JOHNNY BARRY A NEW YEAR'S WISHER.

Starni and Ritola will not turn pro. It may be that they don't, have to.

MAIN GARDEN BOUL LOOKS LIKE WOW

THE Boston Garden will open tomorrow night with a ring war that promises to be one of the best ever waged in this sector. Honeyboy Finnegan, a junior lightweight, with more courage than half a dozen heavies, will engage Andre Routis of France, the feather champion.

The little fighter is a real warrior, one of those plucky, free-swinging birds, who will take six swabs on the forehead to get in a good one. A look at the Routis pan, as Ray Shanahan has slashed it, will tell you that.

Young Victor Finnegan is a sharp shooter, who doesn't warm up until he has landed two or three haymakers. He has a right jab and a left hook first permit to make the morning. St. Routis thinks he has swallowed a little too much vin rouge.

These are a couple of the highlights of some men on the pugilist list and their skirmish should send the new garden off to a lumpy start.

B. U. READY FOR FINAL GAME

Conches Brown and Boston have their Brown University eleven primed for the final game of the season with Norwich University at Nicholson Field tomorrow.

The Pioneers are anxious to close their season with a victory of consequence. The C-deers have lost to the B. U. in the first two games, but they are determined to win the third.

These are a couple of the highlights of some men on the pugilist list and their skirmish should send the new garden off to a lumpy start.

SIX HEAVYWEIGHTS FOR ST. JOE'S TOURNEY

St. Joseph's University will hold a six-heavyweight tournament in the gymnasium tomorrow night. The event will be a good one for the fans.

By JACK CONWAY

"NOTICE" said Mr. Boston today, "that Tex Rickard has confirmed my tip of a month ago that Jack Dempsey is going to come back for another fling at Fritz Gold and glory next summer."

The former champion has said that he will not fight Dempsey during the coming winter but will prove with the men in England a crack at a multi-millionaire gate.

When in Boston, Dempsey suggested to Johnny Rickard that he match Sharkey with Paulino. The Times of the opinion that the Boston contender would knock off the heavy, would make a good headline.

ASK VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY IN STEWART CASE

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—Justice J. H. McHugh today asked the jury in the Stewart case to return a verdict of not guilty. The jury, which had been deliberating for several hours, returned its verdict at 1:30 p.m. The defendant, John Stewart, was charged with the murder of a woman named Mary Stewart. The case had been widely publicized in the press.

RUTH WYNNIE IS BIGAMIST, SAYS THE LAW

London, Nov. 15 (AP)—The divorce court today ruled that Ruth Wynne, a woman who had been married to a man named John Wynne, was a bigamist. The court found that she had married another man while her first husband was still alive. The ruling was based on evidence presented by the prosecution.

GEN. SMITH DEPLORES INCREASE IN U. S. NAVY

Washington, Nov. 15 (AP)—General Smith today expressed his disapproval of the proposed increase in the U. S. Navy. He argued that the current fleet was sufficient for the nation's needs and that a larger navy would be a waste of resources. He also mentioned the importance of maintaining a strong navy for national defense.

Engineers Dine

At a dinner of Boston Post, Society of American Military Engineers, at the Engineers' Club, Old Sturtevant A. Clancy, engineer of the U. S. Boy, 12, Pens Will So Illiterate Woman Can Kill Self

Newark, N. J., Nov. 15 (AP)—Searching for an amanuensis to a suicide note, after questioning 12 children, today came upon Peter Anselmo, 12. Peter said he thought he was writing a will for Mrs. Ernestine Maser, a neighbor. She had paid him 15 cents and dictated. "Write all my money to my younger children, but don't let my husband or older daughter see my body." The woman was hospitalized by illness when authorities learned she had been illiterate.

BRITISH BITTER IN RENOUNCING COOLIDGE

London, Nov. 15 (AP)—Great Britain's literary world today echoed, and in most instances "echoed," the "shock" which has been occasioned by President Coolidge's Armistice Day speech. The New Statesman is the most outspoken "Plebsman" Giff. It holds a special editorial. The Saturday Review, the Nation and even the Spectator, which is the staunchest opponent of hands across the sea, join in criticism of the President's attitude.

To Quit Job

London, Nov. 15—For 44 years Anus has been a member in the House of Parliament. Some will retire to a well-earned rest.

SEEN NO GREAT HARM

The Armistice Day speech was in effect a denunciation of the war and all its horrors from the standpoint of a 100 per cent New England backwoodsman. Challenging the President's motives, the New Statesman says that, after all, America is President Coolidge's, or Lord R. B. Menzies's reply. It can do no more serious harm, because the real relations between America and Great Britain do not depend upon mutual feelings but upon common interests and instincts.

"HAD HOOVER O. K."

The Saturday Review declares the speech is above all valuable on account of its frankness. "There is no man today," it says, "who is so even as tolerant of European weaknesses as is the present occupant of the White House." The Nation says the speech was read in draft form by Mr. Hoover and must be taken as a formal statement of foreign policy which the new administration will take over. It may be regretted that on the part of the President, "President Hoover" should have clothed himself as an intermediary in the question of American "peace."

PRIVY COUNCIL TO RULE ON WOMEN AS "PERSONS"

London, Nov. 15 (AP)—The judicial committee of the Privy Council today granted five representatives of women of Canada leave to appeal to the Privy Council from the judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada, which ruled that women were not "persons" under the meaning of the British North America Act. It therefore was not eligible for the Canadian Senate.

WOMAN CLERK IS HELD FOR JURY IN THEFT CASE

Mrs. Hilda A. Lewis, former bookkeeper employed by the Family Welfare Society, was held in $3000 for the grand jury today when she appeared in municipal court, charged with larceny of $2000 from the welfare organization. Before Judge Michael J. Covel the woman waived examination. Her arraignment was on a continuance of several weeks.

Two Evening Gowns

Two gowns in the new luxurious spirit of the evening mode. The one at left is a new design in a simple, elegant fashion, with an understanding of the latest in evening dress. The other is a more elaborate design, with a high collar and long sleeves.

Reproduced by special arrangement with Harper's Bazar.

Mrs. Solomon Says:

My dear friend, I am writing to you about the latest in evening dress. I have seen many beautiful gowns, but none that I like as well as the one I am wearing now. It is simple, elegant, and comfortable.

Household Hints

If you have a cold, it is best to stay in bed. If you have a fever, it is best to take a cool bath. If you have a headache, it is best to rest your head on a pillow.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

For the last three years
the most popular food in the world has been the one that is easiest to digest.

A Perfect Food

If milk is good,
with Toddy it is

Business Woman's Key to Success

"Pluck, Push and Prayer" is a good slogan for the woman going into business," says Alice Foster MacDonald, coffee broker, operator and owner of five restaurants in New York, and author, who started in with a capital of $18 and now takes in nearly $50,000 a month.

In an informal talk to an oversight of the Boston Women's club, she said: "To run your own business you must practice the most rigid self-discipline."

It is not up to the woman to change the world, but to change the world within her. She must be a woman of action, not a woman of words.

She must be a woman of faith, not a woman of doubt. She must be a woman of courage, not a woman of fear.

She must be a woman of kindness, not a woman of cruelty. She must be a woman of love, not a woman of hate.

She must be a woman of hope, not a woman of despair. She must be a woman of joy, not a woman of sorrow.

She must be a woman of
faith, not a woman of
doubt. She must be a woman
of courage, not a woman of
fear.

She must be a woman of
kindness, not a woman of cruelty. She must be a woman
of love, not a woman of
hate.

Fads and Fashions

Wearing your heart on your sleeve is a fad. It is a fad to wear a long dress. It is a fad to wear a short dress.

Not only baby can have his bottle,
but the woman can have her bottle. It is a fad to wear
a long dress. It is a fad to wear a short dress.

There is nothing new under the sun.
It is a fad to wear a long dress.
It is a fad to wear a short dress.

Correct Manners

By MRS. CHARLES BRACKMAN
THE COMPLEXTARY CLOSE
UP OF THE "MIS" KISS

I have been with a young man for nearly a year and in this time I have learned a great deal about the "mis" kiss.

It is a kiss that is not a kiss. It is a kiss that is not a kiss. It is a kiss that is not a kiss.

It is a kiss that is not a kiss. It is a kiss that is not a kiss. It is a kiss that is not
a kiss.

It is a kiss that is not a

It is a kiss that is not a

WORDS OF THE WISE MEN

The blush is beautiful, but it is sometimes inconvenient.—Goudon.

Indolence is the sleep of the mind.—Vauvenargues.

The thing certain is that nothing is certain and nothing is more certain.—

wretched or more proud than man.—Pliny the Elder.

It is the nature of man to be greedy for poverty.—Pliny the Elder.

Many things are wanting to poverty, all things to avarice.—
